Nationalist Government Lottery Loan

of the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of China, being the Year 1927.
Bond for Five Dollars, United States.

The Regulations of Lottery Loan for redeeming the Canton-Hankow Railway Securities, and the uncompleted works in general, were sanctioned by the Nationalist Government Session of the 24th, 1927. A summary of the said Regulations appears as follows:—

Amount raised — $5,000,000.

Reimbursement — 50.

Security — The loan is secured on the revenue from the 2.5% surtax, collected at the ports of Kwangtung Province, and the General Bank of China, which is the Government Depository, additionally guarantees the payment of interest and the repayment of principal at maturity.

Repayment — The bonds repaid in thirty monthly installments as follows:—

1st to 10th month	2% of the bonds are drawn each month
11th to 20th	3%
21st to 30th	5%

Public drawings for repayment of principal are held each month in the General Chamber of Commerce, Canton, and directly after the winning numbers are drawn, a second drawing will be made from the said winning numbers for the awarding of prizes:—

The following prizes will be drawn each month:—

1 First prize	1	$25,000
2 Second prize	2	$5,000
4 Third prize	4	$2,000
100 Fourth prize	100	$1,000
100 Fifth prize	100	$500
500 Sixth prize	500	$200
1000 Seventh prize	1,000	$100
100 Eighth prize	100	$50
500 Ninth prize	500	$25

All bonds, which have been drawn for repayment of principal, but which failed to qualify for any of the above mentioned prizes at the second drawing, will receive 25 cents each, in addition to the repayment of principal.

Drawn bonds should be presented to the General Bank of China, Canton, for repayment of principal and payment of prize within six months after the drawing.

Use of Bonds — The Bonds are non-transferable, but may be bought, sold, assigned, or used as security or otherwise for all public transactions.

Finally — Every power or person who demands the bonds will be provided for by law.

Date of Issue closed — August 1st, 1927.
